TCU ETEN Faculty Exchange

Spring 2024: Call for Applications

TCU's College of Education, TCU Global, and the Frost Foundation would like to invite faculty from ETEN member institutions to visit TCU in Fort Worth, Texas in the Spring of 2024 to share their expertise as well as learn about our programs, students, partnerships, and faculty. Travel arrangements will be provided in the amount of up to $3000 for each faculty member selected. Funding is available to support up to two ETEN faculty exchanges in Winter or Spring of 2024.

For consideration, applicants should submit the following:

- 1) Preferred dates for a TCU visit (weekdays should be included).
- 2) A 150–250-word biography that highlights areas of teaching and/or research interests and expertise as related to education, higher education, K-12 education, teacher education, youth advocacy, or a related discipline.
- 3) A brief description of 2-3 elements you hope to gain or experience while visiting TCU and Fort Worth (no more than 75 words).
- 4) A brief description of 2-3 ways your relevant expertise could be shared with TCU community (i.e., lectures, panel discussion, site visits, community engagement, interactive dialogue, etc.) (no more than 75 words)
- 5) A brief description of how your visit may impact TCU students, which may include how your visit could align with global citizenship, global learning and/or intercultural learning. (no more than 75 words)
- 6) A current CV.

Applications are due by February 2, 2024. Recipients will be notified during the week of February 5, 2024. For additional questions, contact Dr. Cynthia Savage, c.l.savage@tcu.edu.
